

2009 Sangiovese “Starlight”

Winemaker Notes

Known for bright fruit, earthy tones and crisp acidity, this Sangiovese will prove to you that Paso Robles can create beauty out of Sangiovese. The color is a dark strawberry and the nose is fruity with flavors of red raspberry, minerals, and spice mingling. Well-balanced acidity and tannins last well into the next sip. A must with Italian fare or spicy BBQ.

Appellation: Paso Robles, CA

Vineyards: Martin Meyrich & Ranchita Canyon Vineyard

Composition: 100% Sangiovese

Technical Information

Production: 123 Cases

Barrel Program: 30 months in neutral French oak

Alcohol: 16.1%

pH: 3.55

Titrateable Acidity: 0.62

Residual Sugar: 0.1%

Best Consumed: Through 2017

Retail Bottle Price: $33.00

